

⁴
Philadelphia again (November) and saw the new sculpture gallery - it is quite well designed for her work, didn't you think?

I called Mrs. Hulbig and she is going to go thru some material and see if she has any there on R.T.M. She also suggested Mrs.
Melville Bradshaw might remember him. Dawn Knutson wrote me a long letter which was very helpful (thank you for the addresses!).

The writing is going along.

Thanks for your help.

I hope you have a happy Christmas and New Year's

Sincerely

Jean Dr.

64

501-190 Calen Ave.
Toronto Ont.
M 5P 2C6

Dec. 15, 1972

Dear Beas and Bob Barron:

Thanks for the picture of the "shepherd" - you should have told me to hold my head straight
- the stance is most un-Arabian like!

I spent 5 weeks in Scotland and England and saw Tart's Memorial Fountain at Tomich - I am enclosing a snap that shows it partially. It has fallen into neglect because no one

I did a lot of hunting for Grandfather MacKenzie
(Rev. Patrick Buchanan MacKenzie)
but all I found was what was in the Taste of the Church of Scotland Assembly office in Edinburgh. Spent long hours in records offices, libraries, museum and galleries & collected quite a bit of "stuff" on R.T.M. and saw "The Call" in Edinburgh, Gen. Jas. Wolfe in Greenwich Park, London, and the Cambridge War Memorial. Was surprised to find even in York in the York Art Gallery, where I was visiting a friend, they had a file on Prof.
MacKenzie. They knew almost as much about him as the Yale University. I have been back to seems to own it, the estate formerly owned by the Majorbanks - Lady Aberdeen's parents - has passed into other hands.

The portrait plaques I hold represent Lady Tweedsmuir, Lady Aberdeen's parents, were done by Dr. MacKenzie and are quite in keeping with his precise modelling but the fountain is rather an ugly and bit of architecture and has never been connected to the watermain so no water ever ran from the various spouts!

Musée McCord
d'histoire canadienne

690, rue
Sherbrooke ouest
Montréal
H3A 1E9
Canada
Téléphone
(514) 398-7100

McCord Museum of Canadian History

690 Sherbrooke
Street West
Montreal
H3A 1E9
Canada
Téléphone
(514) 398-7100

Université
McGill
McGill
University

Miss Elizabeth Pitt-Barron
413 Linwell Rd, Apt. 321
St. Catharines, Ontario
L2M 2P3

June 23, 1987

Dear Miss Pitt-Barron:

A member of the McGill Visual Arts Committee has informed me that you have documents relating to Tait McKenzie and his family which you were considering disposing of. This is a rather abrupt introduction to say that either the McCord Museum Archives or the Archives of McGill University would be interested in learning about the papers and possibly acquiring them if you think fit.

This letter is simply to let you know that we are interested and that we look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Pamela J. Miller

(Mrs.) P.J. Miller
Archivist

PJM:ggl

The Margaret Eaton School Digital Collection is a not-for-profit resource created in 2014-2015 to assist scholars, researchers, educators, and students to discover the Margaret Eaton School archives housed in the Peter Turkstra Library at Redeemer University College. Copyright of the digital images is the property of Redeemer University College, Ancaster, Canada and the images may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email digital images for individual non-commercial use. To learn more about this project or to search the digital collection, go to <http://libguides.redeemer.ca/mes>.